Students meet the Queen!

Congratulations to Charlotte Lewis (Y10) and Marcus Beavan (Y9) who were selected along with 20 other cadets from North Wales to meet the Queen with the Royal Welsh regiment at Lucknow Barracks in Tidworth, Wiltshire on March 3rd. During the visit, the Queen presented leeks to mark St David's Day and met selected groups from all parts of the Regimental Family – Cadets, Reserves, Regular Personnel and Comrades as well as the regimental mascots, Shenkin and Llywelyn!

Welsh Week

The Welsh department organised a variety of activities to celebrate St. David's day. Representatives from the 'Cymraeg pob dydd' project ran some sessions on language awareness with year 7 and year 11; Rhydian Prys from the Urdd came in on St David's day itself to entertain Year 7 with some games / mabolgiamocs through the medium of Welsh and we held special St David's day assemblies throughout the week in which students were encouraged to "do the little things" to help others at home and at school.

Justice in a day

On Thursday March 9th a number of Y8 & 9 students spent a day at 'Justice in a day' – an interactive performance workshop which takes the delegates on a journey following a fictional character from the time they break the law through to sentencing at a real Magistrates Court. They investigated the cause and effect of being involved in law breaking – not just for the offender but also on the victim, their families and the wider communities. The organisers reported that students participated fully and asked thought provoking questions throughout, gaining a tremendous amount from the experience.
